

Castle visit

Nine centuries of history

Walking through the gates of Haut-Kœnigsbourg Castle is like plunging into the world of the Middle Ages. From the lower courtyard with its inn, forge and mill, to the spiral staircases leading to the furnished flats of the lord... discover the architecture, the collections and the atmosphere, all steeped in 900 years of history.

And it is by visiting the castle freely and discovering the route at your own pace that you will fully enjoy the monument, its riches and its details. A privileged visit to this impressive fortress...

A visit document in 14 languages presenting the history, architecture and restoration of the monument is available for download on the castle's website.

And to complete this discovery :

900 years and still very young

Haut-Kœnigsbourg on display

For almost 900 years, the silhouette of Haut-Kœnigsbourg has dominated Alsace. From the initial castle in the 12th century, through its complete reconstruction in the 15th century to its monumental restoration in the 20th century, the fortress has never stopped being reborn.

An exhibition spread over the entire tour circuit invites you to take a closer look at the monument and follow its evolution. In a playful, sometimes offbeat, and always highly visual way, some twenty panels help visitors to understand the fortress' defence system, imagine daily life in the 15th century or find remains from the 12th century... Everyone's talents for observation, reflection and imagination are called upon to read this old castle, which looks like still very young!
