

The Haut-Koenigsbourg massif

Right in the heart of Alsace there is a mountainous region where there is something for everyone...

The more mountainous parts of the beautiful region of Sélestat are a wonderful place to escape the stresses of everyday life, try something a little more adventurous and experience life to the full. The Haut-Koenigsbourg massif is packed with things to see and do - this is really a place that you can enjoy to the full with your family and friends!

Barely three and a half hours from Paris by the TGV high-speed train, less than an hour from Strasbourg and Mulhouse - the château du Haut-Koenigsbourg, the Montagne des Singes and the Volerie des Aigles have everything you need to have an unforgettable time in the heart of Alsace.

Where else is it possible, in the space of one day, to take on a mountain fortress, to get up close and personal with a Barbary macaque and to fly your own bird of prey? So why wait any longer - a trip to the Haut-Koenigsbourg massif is simply a must!

A shuttle bus service from Sélestat train station runs between the three sites, making it even easier for visitors. Make sure you check the timetable to see which days the service operates. This is a smart way of saving some money, as users of this service benefit from a discount on the admission fee to each of the three tourist attractions it stops at. Simply show your shuttle bus ticket at the ticket office of whichever site you're visiting.